About

VOLLBRECHT PLANETARIUM

19100 Filmore, Southfield, MI 48075

(On the East end of Adler Elementary School,
A NASA Explorers School)

The planetarium projects 6,000 night sky stars that are visible to the unaided eye. The images and positions of the Sun, Moon and its phases as well as the planets Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn are seen.

Our planetarium's greatest attribute is its ability to compress time so that in the course of minutes, it displays the changes in the night sky from sunset to sunrise. Our "to scale" model of the Solar System is based on the 30-foot dome representing the size of the Sun.

School shows for 4th through 7th graders are designed to meet core requirements. The standard theme is, "Our 13 Planet Solar System," but can be modified to reinforce individual class programs. Talk to us. The Planetarium number is 248-746-8880. Leave a brief message and we'll return your call.
